Local Surveyor Takes Post as North Carolina Society of Surveyors Surveyor of the Year Awards Ceremony Held February 12, 2010

LARRY GREENE

What: R. Larry Greene of Marion, NC, was recently elected North Carolina Surveyor of the Year by the membership of the North Carolina Society of Surveyors. The election was conducted in November 2009 and the results announced February 12, 2010 at the NCSS annual convention held in Greenville, North Carolina. Mr. Greene was honored primarily for his work in the areas of Surveying Education and Professional Ethics. He has authored three Bills over the years which were passed by the NC General Assembly. The first was a uniform mapping law which brought all 100 NC Counties under the same requirements for recording a plat (1983). The second was a 2-year degree requirement for becoming a Land Surveyor (1985). The third was a 4-year degree requirement in surveying to become a Professional Land Surveyor (2005). He also chaired the committee which established a continuing education requirement for all Professional Engineers and Professional Land Surveyors.

His work in the area of professional ethics included the chairmanship of the Professionalism and Ethics Committee of the National Council of Examiners for Engineers and Surveyors (NCEES) and the NCEES representative to the National Institute of Engineering Ethics (NIEE). He was presented a Presidential Commendation by NCEES for his work in developing a Professionalism and Ethics in Surveying course. He also received the Distinguished Service Award from NCEES for those same efforts.

Mr. Greene is a former President of the North Carolina Society of Surveyors and also a former member of the North Carolina Board of Examiners for Engineers and Surveyors which he chaired in 1993 and again in 1998.
